

Dear Reda,

Priority Club Rewards hosts a private online community for some of our best and most loyal customers. Recently, one of our members identified your hotel as providing outstanding service.

According to Ashok Saxena, the hotel performed "exceptionally well and was an excellent value for the money. I received the exec. room upgrade without asking, along with late checkout."

We appreciate your commitment to superior service and thank you for positively impacting our customers' travels!

Best,

Rasandra Jeyarajam
