HOLIDAY INN DUBAI – AL BARSHA OFFERS FESTIVE FARE FROM AROUND THE WORLD

With a venue and a celebration for every taste, the hotel serves up a complete menu of Christmas and New Year promotions

Capitalising on its array of restaurants, the Holiday Inn Dubai – Al Barsha has designed an extensive package of dining, overnight and stay-at-home treats for guests and residents this year, to ensure there is something for every taste.

Kicking off the festive season, there is a Yuletide carol celebration with traditional songs sung by the hotel's own Christmas choir, while the Xmas House in the lobby has a selection of cookies, ginger houses and live cooking stations creating a true festive mood.

Those staying at home with friends and family can take the strain out of the holidays with a take-away turkey, roasted to perfection and complete with stuffing and all the trimmings – prepaid orders should be made 48 hours in advance.

On Christmas Eve, dinner in The Gem Garden features a convivial buffet enhanced with carol singing and a great value cost of just AED195 per person, inclusive of house beverages, while a Christmas Day buffet lunch offer the bonus of a visit from Santa Claus for the same price.

Even more tempting is the stopover package – a AED1,400 price tag for a double room plus dinner at The Royal Buddha, a memorable treat for those seeking a hassle-free Christmas or New Year.

As the bells ring in the New Year, the Holiday Inn Dubai – Al Barsha also has a variety of tempting offers from around the world, including a Lebanese buffet at Al Sarab with dancing and live entertainment as well as the best of Lebanese cuisine, priced at just AED650 per person inclusive of house beverages.

A Thai dinner buffet at Royal Buddha costs AED450 per person, again with free house beverages and the a selection of Thailand's finest dishes, while the Gharana is serving up an Indian buffet at its Bollywood Night, complete with live entertainment in true Bollywood style – price here is AED350 per person.

Those who like variety can take advantage of the All-You-Can-Eat New Year's Eve offer at Sushi Folie for AED 175 per person inclusive of two glasses of house wine.

According to general manager, Reda Moukhtar, the wide selection of promotions has been devised to offer diners a choice of how and where to celebrate: "We know Dubai is home to an array of nationalities and we aim to ensure at the Holiday Inn Dubai – Al Barsha that there is a festive favourite on the menu for everyone,”
